

Synod failing to respond to Catholic calls for renewal and reform

“Progress seems to be measured against Vatican II which is already 60 years in the past.”

by Sarah Mac Donald

Expectations for the Synod on Synodality “are low”, according to the lay reform group We Are Church International.

Speakers at a briefing organised by the group called for “strong proposals” for the full equality of women and allowing local churches the freedom to reform.

...

<https://www.thetablet.co.uk/news/19406/synod-failing-to-respond-to-catholic-calls-for-renewal-and-reform>

Zuletzt geändert am 17.10.2024