

'Still much to be done' on reform in the Catholic Church

A coalition of national church reform groups has used the 12th anniversary of Pope Francis' election to stress the urgent need for reform initiated by the current pontiff and confirmed by the World Synod.

We Are Church International, which is seeking renewal of the Roman Catholic Church, said it was pleased that Pope Francis was no longer in danger of death, and it called for prayers to continue for his speedy recovery.

...

<https://www.rte.ie/news/ireland/2025/0313/1501789-church-reform/>

Zuletzt geändert am 28.04.2025