News update: Current work since spring 2008:

23rd public general meeting: "Sexuality in Christian responsibility"

At the occasion of the 23rd public general meeting of the reform movement We are Church (Germany), Bielefeld, March 28-30, the Paderborn theologian Prof. Dr. Agnes Wuckelt presented a sound overview over the relationship between sexuality and religion. The paper was published together with a detailed statement on the 40th anniversary of the encyclical "Humanae vitae" by We are Church in a new booklet in the "yellow series". Download: → www.wir-sind-kirche.de/id=218

On Sunday, Dr. Eugen Drewermann gave a report on the topic "Jesus of Nazareth – Liberation for peace". With a liturgical ceremony in Paderborn cathedral at the occasion of the "World day of prayer for women's ordination", the meeting ended.

Letter to Pope Benedict on abolition of compulsory celibacy

The public general meeting appealed to Pope Benedict to make the Sunday Eucharist possible for all Christian communities – a fact that actually is ensured by Church law (can. 213 CIC) – by abolishing compulsory celibacy. By this letter, We are Church supported the worldwide initiatives for that aim, which are becoming more and more numerous. "No more bans on thinking about celibacy!" was the topic of the Pentecost letter of the reform movement to the parishes.

Participation in 97th German Catholics' Convention, Osnabrueck

As it was done before at the occasion of Catholics' Conventions and Protestant Church Conventions, We are Church participated in the 97th German Catholics' Convention (Osnabrueck, May 21-25). Two great events, dealing with progress after the Second Vatican Council and with ecumenism, a liturgy without priest, the talks at "Jacob's well", and the press releases met huge interest. Resolutions, among others, on participation of non-Catholic Christians in the Eucharist and on admitting re-married divorced persons to the mass were issued.

Accompanying critically the Bishops' Synod on biblical exegesis and homiletics in Rome

A 12 topics paper was issued dealing with the questions aroused during the Synod; this paper was also adopted by the International Movement We are Church.

The Symposium "Go and preach – women in 'ministries' in the early Church", Frankfurt/Main, September 27, 2008, was held as preparation of the day of campaign in Rome.

The day of campaign in Rome took place on October 15, 2008, the memorial day of St. Theresa of Avila. Representatives of international movements of women's ordination, clothed like in early times of the Church, showed their opinion to the Bishop's Synod by a press conference and a demonstration march. In the afternoon, the petition dealing with the resumption of the diaconate for women was handed over to Pope Benedict XVI via the Vatican security chief. The petition is signed by 1571 catholic organizations and individuals. Photos taken on that occasion later had to be deleted on police order.

The day of campaign had been organised by seven women and men from Germany.

24th public general meeting – "Second Vatican Council and the consequences"

50 years after Pope John XXIII was elected (October 28, 1958) and announced the Second Vatican Council (January 25, 1959), the public general meeting (Wuerzburg, November 7-9) focusses on the changes and the progress initialised by this reform Council and on the question how this progress has developed since then. Main expert speaker during this meeting is Fr. Dr. Wolfgang Seibel SJ, observer of the Council and many-year editor of the Jesuit magazine "Stimmen der Zeit" (= Voices of time).
